“Imagine being so close to the drama on stage that you forget you’re in the audience. The lines begin to blur and for a moment or more, you become one of the characters in the play, words forming on your lips...”

That’s how you’ll feel when you experience Shakespeare Unplugged, presented by Montreal's Shakespeare-in-the-Park company. Memorable scenes from the Bard’s most famous plays will entertain and inspire you as they explore and probe the powerful art of persuasion.”
